Dear [Recipient's Name],

I'm thrilled to apply for the Software Developer position at [Company Name]. With six years of experience as a Human Resources Generalist, I'm excited to leverage my skills in a new capacity and bring a unique perspective to your development team.

Throughout my career, I've developed strong problem-solving skills, often tackling complex issues and streamlining processes to improve efficiency. As a Human Resources Generalist, I've worked closely with teams to identify and implement solutions, which has given me a strong appreciation for the importance of effective communication and collaboration.

I'm confident that my experience in reviewing and implementing HR policies can be adapted to software development. I'm eager to bring my analytical mind and organized approach to a new challenge, ensuring that projects are executed with precision and attention to detail.

As a self-motivated individual with excellent communication skills, I thrive in fast-paced environments and am comfortable working independently. I'm excited to apply my strong negotiation skills to collaborating with cross-functional teams and driving projects forward.

While I may not have direct experience in software development, I'm a quick learner with a strong foundation in problem-solving, analysis, and project management. I'm eager to apply my skills in a new context and learn from experienced developers.

Thank you for considering my application. I'd welcome the opportunity to discuss how my unique blend of skills and experience can contribute to your team's success. Please feel free to contact me at (716) 555-0100 or janna@example.com.

Sincerely,

Janna Gardner
